Put qualified contractors to work... faster than ever before!

Whether your company is a multi-national, publicly traded organization, or a contracting firm responsible for providing employees to plant owners, you need a background screening program that addresses your unique needs, as well as the broader regulatory requirements of the Chemical and Petrochemical Industry.

A “Best-in-Class” Solution

At LexisNexis®, we have the unique distinction of working with leading, best-in-class employers in the Chemical and Petrochemical Industry. Based on our in-depth understanding of their needs, we deliver comprehensive, efficient background screening solutions designed to shorten the hiring cycle and decrease screening costs, while improving workplace security and industry compliance. Together we can strengthen and streamline your overall human resource and security efficiencies by integrating a robust background screening process into your existing hiring program and site access process.

A strong, industry-focused background screening program can help you:

- Maintain critical compliance requirements in a rapidly evolving legislative environment.
- Protect your employees, your workplace and your company assets, as well as the global communities in which you operate.
- Mitigate your legal risk associated with negligent hiring.
- Easily accommodate high volume hiring peaks, in which you must screen and hire a large volume of workers for specific projects at remote locations.
- Protect your brand and corporate image in today’s highly competitive, global marketplace.

Key Benefits

- Place qualified workers on the job site faster
Our highly-specialized contractor screening service uses advanced, automated technology to speed up the hiring process to help you put qualified people to work faster than ever before.
- Save money with reduced pricing
Access some of the most competitive pricing available in the market to reduce your administrative costs without compromising quality of service.
- Quick sign up with an easy, user-friendly process
You can sign up online and start searching the same day with our easy-to-use, accessible service.
- Comply with key industry regulations
Our service is fully compliant with Chemical and Petrochemical Industry regulations, as well as requirements for the employment screening industry, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).
- Access a stable, client-focused service
Unlike other providers, we have the dedicated resources to easily accommodate volume spikes due to acquisitions or seasonal hiring peaks with no turnaround delays or service interruptions.
- Strong industry expertise and program support
To deliver the highest quality of specialized service, we have made substantial investments to build a dedicated team that understands the unique hiring and onboarding procedures within your industry.

LexisNexis® Your Single-Source Provider

At LexisNexis, we give you integrated solutions that help you address specific challenges to maximize your buying power and enhance your overall organizational success.

Using our extensive industry experience, we can help you create a flexible screening program that achieves multiple goals, which can include:

- Delivering direct cost savings.
- Accelerating your screening process.
- Utilizing advanced technologies.
- Implementing industry-specific best practices.
- Ensuring long-term scalability.

Contractor screening made simple.

To make your job easier, we offer a screening solution that is fully integrated with your local area safety councils to provide quick ordering capabilities, fast online results and status updates.

- Sign up electronically and start ordering searches the same day.
- Searches are ordered directly from the safety council website, with the results securely delivered online to your LexisNexis account.
- Our proprietary search technology uses automation to offer fast report turnaround.

Reciprocity—A unique industry service

All of our Background Check Graded (BCG) screens are reciprocal and compliant with Safety Council Security Consortium (SCSC) programs. Because we are an approved SCSC partner, our screenings are valid and transportable for up to 24 months. This allows contractors to start working faster by giving them immediate access to results of reciprocal searches at a significantly reduced price.
