Digital transformation continues full speed ahead

The ever-evolving payments landscape requires solutions that deliver speed, accuracy and security while prioritizing customer experience at every touchpoint. LexisNexis® Risk Solutions provides payments validation tools and data intelligence that help organizations reduce failed payments and address details.

Payments data enhances benefits of FRAML

Payments data in 2023 supports the distribution of funds and AML compliance. It is the key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes significant headway

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes a key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Failed payments remain top of mind

60% of organizations reported losing customers because of failed payments.22 The average fee for each failed or delayed payments.9

Payments data enhances benefits of FRAML

Payments data in 2023 supports the distribution of funds and AML compliance. It is the key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes significant headway

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes a key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Failed payments remain top of mind

60% of organizations reported losing customers because of failed payments.22 The average fee for each failed or delayed payments.9

Payments data enhances benefits of FRAML

Payments data in 2023 supports the distribution of funds and AML compliance. It is the key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes significant headway

Adoption of end-to-end payments platforms makes a key contributor to these costs. By 2025, smartphones penetration globally will likely reach 80%.

Failed payments remain top of mind

60% of organizations reported losing customers because of failed payments.22 The average fee for each failed or delayed payments.9