

Leverage one of the nation's largest databases of public and non-public records

More accurately and effectively resolve claims.

LexisNexis[®] Accurint[®] for Insurance is a portal solution that aids life insurers in their research of deceased parties and beneficiaries. It helps enable insurers to quickly gain access to more complete and accurate data by leveraging our LexID[®] unique identifier and patented linking as its primary search technology.

How is Accurint[®] for Insurance different?

- Advanced analytics utilize our LexID[®] unique identifier for linking and risk decision-making
- More seamless integration into critical insurer workflows

Accurint[®] for Insurance can help you:

- Validate and verify customer-provided information
- Easily access deceased data
- Detect, investigate and prevent fraud
- Identify and locate potential beneficiaries
- Resolve claims quickly and efficiently

Comprehensive yet affordable

Industry-leading, value-added, publicly available record related searches. National and international news and other sources that reveal connections among people, businesses, assets and locations that can't be found in public records

Comprehensive and industry leading database of deceased records

Crucial information to help locate, communicate and manage compliance including address, email, phone number searches and identify relatives and associates

Unparalleled client support and training, with 24/7 customer service, technical support and search assistance; individual or group training

A "My Account" function empowers access control, allowing system administrators to easily manage employee access, change passwords, retrieve invoicing and activity reports, and set search functions, preferences and company security restrictions
