

Hitting the mark begins with focus

Connect to more right-party contacts and collect faster with LexisNexis® Phone Solutions.

Collect faster with analytics-driven results

Collecting today is more challenging than ever. Consistently hitting the mark and collecting means more than just getting to the right party. It means being mindful of Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA) regulations. It means leveraging more efficient and cost-effective tools to locate consumer information. It means getting to your consumer before the competition collects.

LexisNexis® Phone Solutions for Collections is a robust set of debt recovery tools that help you focus search strategies and gain more right-party contact results and critical phone data insights. More precise results and higher net collections means a superior return on your investment.

An unparalleled combination powers our searches:

- LexID® proprietary linking technology and advanced identification methodology
- LexisNexis® PhoneScore patented scoring technology
- The largest database of public and proprietary records—over 87 billion
- Over 10,000 sources of data

Stronger collections results start at the source

With changing consumer behavior and migration to wireless phones, efforts to locate right parties can be challenging, in part due to regulatory requirements. Phone Solutions from LexisNexis® Risk Solutions provide advanced searching that incorporates wireless content and other phone types that help you consistently make more accurate connections with fewer clicks, including:

↑ 9% better right-party contact rate than the competition<sup>1</sup>

↓ 39.8% fewer disconnects than the competition<sup>2</sup>
