

Accelerate approval rates, reduce costs and mitigate risk with superior business verification

Profitable decisions depend on truly knowing your customer. To quickly capitalize on new opportunities, you need an accurate and amplified view of a business and the people associated with the entity. How can you cost-effectively speed up onboarding workflows while reducing risk?

LexisNexis® InstantID® Business delivers instant access to proven business content, stronger entity linking and advanced analytics to give your business precise decisioning perspective to maximize approval rates and minimize risk.

Book more accounts with extensive business coverage

InstantID® Business gives you the competitive advantage of next-generation business verification. By combining the reach of more than 10,000 data sources with the intelligence of industry-leading linking capabilities, InstantID® Business accelerates entity verification and rapidly connects businesses with associated representatives to provide a detailed decisioning viewpoint that helps:

Automate and accelerate the approval process

Reduce costly delays and manual reviews

Minimize risk exposure

Support stronger compliance

Facilitate a comprehensive risk review

Expedite beneficial ownership verification requirements

InstantID® Business expands your perspective by covering 25 percent more US businesses than any other provider, including millions of hard-to-assess small and new businesses. By combining robust commercial content that includes business names, locations, FEINs and firmographics with the renowned reach of LexisNexis® consumer content, we deliver one of the most powerful small business-to-authorized representative verification available in the market today. With this tool, you have the power to instantly build a broader understanding of a business and the people associated with it so you can seize untapped market opportunities, streamline approvals and sidestep hidden risk.

Automate decisions and eliminate variances

InstantID® Business provides relevant risk intelligence on businesses and the people connected to the businesses to help proactively identify risk and enable more confident approvals. By delivering concise, easy-to-interpret results in a 0-50 risk verification index, InstantID® Business helps streamline approvals and eliminate variances. Increase decision clarity and consistency with features that help your business:

- Auto-verify more businesses and get substantially fewer no-hits with the combination of significantly improved linking, market leading data quality and robust alternative data assets.
- Simplify beneficial ownership verification requirements by assessing up to five authorized representatives associated with the business.
- Identify more in-depth connections between the business and authorized representatives with our improved Business to Executive Link.
- Magnify your perspective into the growing sole proprietorship and Small Office/Home Office population with our Residential Business Indicator.
- Access detailed verification indices that summarize the source in which the subject was verified and the source count.
- Accelerate investigations with risk flags and reason codes that highlight specific areas of concern.

With InstantID® Business you get precise business decisioning perspective that increases focus on your core business goals.
